Bauser's Dog Training in South Florida has created this privacy statement in order to demonstrate our firm commitment to your privacy. The following discloses our information gathering and dissemination practices for this website:

First and foremost: we do not send you advertising emails unless you opt too. We want to handle everything we do at Bauser's Pet Training in the same fashion we wish to be treated during an online shopping excursion. So, don't worry - normally the correspondence you will receive from us is communication about your dog's training. That's it - we promise never to bombard you with junk email. Really!

Dog training classes purchased on our site are processed through PayPal on their secure servers. We do not have access to any financial or personal information about you or your visit to our site. PayPal provides us with data on your mailing address, email address and the details of your purchase but does not enable us to see any financial information whatsoever. While PayPal does retain the details of your order for us to access for a length of time determined by PayPal, we normally only access that information when we need to for our tracking purposes.
